About me

Hey, I'm Hardik ⎋, a B.Tech student who's all about tech, creativity, and making things happen. I've participated and won in hackathons, love working with Java, React, Supabase, Python and I'm always exploring new tools. Currently leading the PR team of my college club, where I handle outreach, events, and bring people together. Learning by doing and turning wild ideas into real-world impact.
